

JOURNEY

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Latino Filmmakers bring a timeless tale to life in the movie "Journey"

Houston, TX - April 5, 2023 - "Journey," a new film created by Latino filmmakers Orlando Briones and Cristopher Rodriguez, both based out of Houston, Texas, is set to take audiences on a powerful and emotional ride through the South Texas border and Mexico. Briones serves as the film's executive producer and cinematographer, while Rodriguez directed the film.

"Journey" tells the story of Roberto, a college-aged student played by Rafael Cebrian, known for his role in "Acapulco". Roberto was born in Mexico but raised in the US as he finds work to support his now pregnant girlfriend. He gets detained and sent back to the place of his birth. He is willing to go to hell and back to return home before the birth of his child.

Filmed and based on locations in Laredo and parts of Mexico, "Journey" immerses viewers in the rich and vibrant culture of the region. The film features a talented cast of actors, including Meaghan Martin, known for her role in "Camp Rock," Arcelia Ramirez, known for "Instructions Not Included," Gustavo Sanchez Parra, known for "Amores Perros," and Mario Zaragoza. All together they bring the story to life with their powerful performances.

"Journey" is a testament to the strength and resilience of the human spirit, as Robert faces numerous obstacles and challenges on his journey home. The film explores themes of family, love, and identity, and is sure to leave a lasting impact on viewers.

"We are proud to have created a film that explores some of the situations that are unique to our culture," said "Journey" screenplay writer Christian Briones. "This is a story that is deeply personal to us, and we hope that audiences will be moved by the messages and themes that 'Journey' conveys."

"Journey" will be available for purchase via TVOD and will also be streaming for free via AVOD on TUBI starting April 30th, 2023.
